Union Leaders and Operators Have Virtually Concluded Peace—Affects Four States.

(By the Associated Press.)
CLEVELAND, Aug. 9.—Virtual decision was reached today by union leaders to conclude a settlement of the soft coal strike with operators gathered here for a peace conference. The operators also were expectant of an agreement affecting practically all the Ohio mines and others scattered through Illinois, Indiana and Pennsylvania.

Final decision on the settlement with the union's policy committee, its members being informed that President Lewis had the assurance of the operators outside the four states of their willingness to reach an agreement based on one negotiated at the conference here.

Primary Results At One Glance

(By the Associated Press.)
The Republican Old Guard has retained its stronghold in Ohio, Democrats of the Buckeye State gave substantial pluralities to organization candidates, Governor McCreary, of Arkansas, held a lead of more than two to one over Judge E. P. Toney for renomination by the Democrats, and Judge W. W. Brandt apparently is the Democratic nominee for Governor of Alabama as result of yesterday's primaries in the three states. Incomplete returns from Ohio indicated Carnal Thompson, backed by Harding forces, and supported by the Anti-Saloon League, was nominated by a wide margin.

Mayberry Taken To Chatham Jail

J. C. Mayberry who is charged with housebreaking in North Carolina was today removed to Chatham, where an arrest has been issued against him regarding housebreaking in Raleigh county. Yesterday evening the chief of police was asked by Commonwealth's Attorney George T. Rison to hold Mayberry and not return him to North Carolina. Officer J. E. Rice took Mayberry to Chatham jail this morning.

It is more than likely that not only will the Walker robbery case be tried at Chatham but also the two cases of grand larceny lodged against the accused in North Carolina.

Shift in Three Big Issues Expected to Be Seen When House Reconvenes.

BY GEORGE H. MANNING.
(Washington Correspondent of Danville Bee.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 9.—Administration officials are looking forward with keen interest to the reconvening of the House of Representatives on August 15. The members of the House who have been visiting their districts during the mid-summer recess are expected to have some valuable first-hand information gathered from the folks back home on the most important issues of the day.

Having spent about six weeks "hunting up fences" and feeling out the general situation their return will afford the administration leaders and the political managers an opportunity to "trim sails" to meet the breeze that will come at the September elections. The legislative program for the remainder of the Congress session will doubtless be adjusted to meet the advice given by the Congress members who have been out and talked face to face with the voters.

Evidences appear of another readjustment by the Republican leaders in Congress on three of the big legislative issues of the day—the bonus, tariff, and ship subsidy—to meet the advice offered by the returning congressman.

There has been conspicuous evidence recently that the general public is taking an unusual interest in pending legislation. Much to the embarrassment of the Republican party public sentiment has developed antagonistic to the party's legislative program.

Three months ago there was little interest manifested by the public in the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill. Now, after a series of denunciations from Democrats and insurgent Republicans, the country appears to be up in arms against it.

Nor does the nation-wide criticism confine itself to Democratic opponents, showing on the contrary that probably more Republicans and Republican publications are lined up against any

Y. M. B. C. Makes Negative Report On One-Man Cars

Danville's educational facilities and just what the three local colleges mean to this city were discussed last night before the board of directors of the Young Men's Business club who met at the Burton hotel at 7 o'clock. There was a full attendance and talks were given by Professor C. G. Evans, of Randolph-Macon Institute, and Col. Kemper, of Danville Military Institute. These educators were asked to make addresses and to assist the directors formulate a means of giving wholesome out of town advertising to the local educational facilities. The scheme will be undertaken more thoroughly when the new directorate assumes office in October. The directors last night were impressed with the economic influence which the schools wield in Danville. Professor Evans said that through the operation here of the unit of the Randolph-Macon system the sum of $300,000 is brought annually to Danville, the other colleges contributing in proportion to their size.

The Young Men's club is interested in bringing about the opening of an up-town ticket office of the Southern railway and the committee, and the traffic committee which is handling the matter hopes to bring this about in the near future.

The committee which has been investigating the one man car proposal is understood to have made its report to the directors, this being negative or opposing the operating of the cars proposed by the Danville Traction and Power company which feels compelled to reduce its expenses owing to the present trend of its business.

It is understood that the street car company is having one of its street cars equipped as a one man car and that this will be within a short while be put on the tracks to show the public just how it operates and in order that they may get a first hand view of it.

Navy Recruiters Are Busy Here

Uncle Sam is recruiting more men for the Navy, notwithstanding talk of disarmament and the scrapping of existing warships. The government has opened its recruiting station in the Federal building, under the management of Chief Machinists Mate M. P. Goode, who will accept between the ages of 18 and 35 provided they meet with the regulation physical standards.

The Nevada will leave the Navy Yard, Norfolk, Virginia, on or about August 11, 1922, for Dahlgren, Virginia, for big gun tests.

Men enlisted for the Nevada in time to reach Norfolk by August 10 should be sent direct to the Nevada at the Navy Yard. Men enlisted for the Nevada who can reach Norfolk between August 11 and August 18 should be sent to the Naval Operating Base, Hampton Roads, for transfer to the Nevada.

After completing gun tests at Dahlgren, the Nevada will proceed to Hampton Roads, arriving there about August 15, and on August 19 will sail for Rio Janeiro, where she will remain over two months as the United States representative at the Centennial Exposition.

Leave Rio November 15, proceed one Atlantic Port, then proceed to the Pacific Coast, via the Panama Canal.

Shot Woman Three Times, Then Kills Himself

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—In a fit of jealous rage, a man will probably last night shot and probably fatally wounded Anna Zaluska, and then turned the gun on himself and inflicted wounds that caused his death two hours later.

According to the police of the 25th district, Mackinkai, who had been living as man and wife, separated last Saturday after a heated argument. Early last night the man is alleged to have gone to the woman's home, at No. 334 E. 12th street, to try and effect a reconciliation. He entered the house and, after calling the woman aside, started an argument. When the woman refused to return to him, Mackinkai, they say, drew a revolver from his coat pocket and fired three bullets at the woman three times, two bullets lodging in her chest, tearing the way through it, and lodging in the wall. He then turned the revolver upon himself and fired three shots into his head.

Neighbors hearing the shots, turned in a riot call to the 25th district. House Sergeant Black immediately dispatched a motorcade policeman to investigate and sent the patrol wagon afterwards. When the patrol arrived at the house both the man and woman were stretched on the floor, the body of Mackinkai having fallen over that of the woman. They were removed to the hospital where immediate operations were performed. Miss Zaluska is said to have a fighting chance, although she is in a very critical condition. Mackinkai lingered for two hours, but died soon after the bullets were removed.

District detectives and two men of the police squad from City Hall started an immediate investigation into the cause of the shooting and they found that the couple had lived together as man and wife for over a year. Last Saturday the woman is alleged to have separated from Mackinkai, after he came home from work. She then beat him. The man was not known in the neighborhood where the shooting took place.

90-Year-Old Man Is Dead From Bee Stings

WHITESBURG, Ky., Aug. 8.—Uncle Joe Holcomb, aged about 90, veteran citizen of the Dry Fork section of this county below here, died after a brief illness presumably from bee stings received about three weeks ago while the veteran was trying to hive a swarm of bees near his home on Dry Fork.

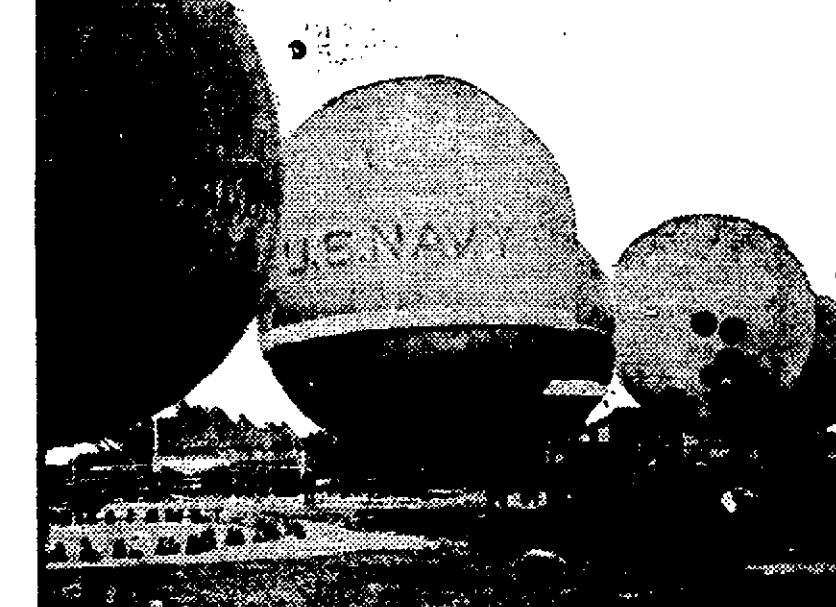

At the time the veteran was stung about the head and face and for a while his life was despaired of. At length he grew better, but physicians indicated that he would never recover. His death yesterday, according to local physicians, was directly due to the bee stings. He died several years ago, since which time a son has been residing with him.

He was the father of 15 children, the most of who are still living. Uncle Joe was well and favorably known all over Eastern Kentucky and Southwestern Virginia, where he leaves many relatives and friends. He was the father-in-law of the late R. B. Bantley.

(By the Associated Press.)
LONDON, Aug. 9.—Premier Poincare and Lloyd George are apparently further apart today on what is to be done with Germany than before they met, and the conferences of the allied statesmen is in danger of breaking up with Franco-British relations worse than they were with no decision of moment on the reparations question. Poincare indicated to Lloyd George today that things cannot continue as they are and that France may be compelled to take independent action.

"Prince" Pranced 4 On Bridal Path

Stopping Hither and Thither to Find Altars, He Took Time Off to Get a Lineage—Police Want Explanation.

was Jesse MacNeil, born in Prince Edward Island. At the time of the marriage Miss Lynn was living at No. 23 Wainwright avenue and was employed as a cashier in a department store. It was about two months ago. She could not be reached today.

The record states that for both "Van Buren" and Miss Lynn, it was their first marriage. His age is given as twenty-two. The police think the "Prince" "Van Buren," or "Schwartz," has had four wives since 1916. First, Ethel Abetz, of New Britain, who divorced him in 1918, at Hartford; second, Miss Lynn; third, a Taunton nurse, with whom he is said to have eloped about six months after his marriage to Miss Lynn; fourth, a Brooklyn girl, who was deserted by the "Prince" Sunday, when the police got on his trail.

"Prince Charming" was a charming, mannered, plausible chap, who had the gift of conversation down to a fine art. He was accustomed to call himself a wealthy doctor, or as a Prince of the Bourbons, who would be king of France if France had a king, or as a personal friend of Czar Nicholas.

In these parts he preferred to be known as a doctor, while, it is said, the closest he ever came to being a doctor was to wash dishes in the State Hospital for the Insane at Taunton and at the Fore River Hospital. He was discharged from both hospitals.

The Count of No Account, as he was called at the State Hospital in Taunton, worked there three weeks in 1919 and was discharged as undesirable after absconding himself without leave. It was emphatically denied that any of the nurses eloped with him or was married to him, as reported from New York. The hospital authorities said it was believed he ran away with a local girl, but one who had no connection with the hospital.

Richmond Man Hit By Street Car

RICHMOND, Aug. 8.—W. Phil August, aged 40, of New York, died today, after having been struck by a street car at Ocean View. Mr. August left here Sunday for a week's vacation. He was staying at the Woodward cottage at Ocean View. Details of the accident have not been learned.

Information of the death of Mr. August was received today by City Clerk Alfred McDonald, who was an intimate friend of Mr. August and to whom he had entrusted all of his affairs.

Mr. August was struck by the car about 8 o'clock this morning and was removed immediately to the hospital. According to reports, several of his limbs were broken and he was otherwise seriously injured. He died fifteen minutes after arriving at the hospital.

He is survived by three nephews: Thomas P. August, of New York; Munford T. August, of this city; and one niece, Mrs. C. R. Perry, of Washington. He had been for more than 20 years in the employ of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone company, where he was held in great esteem. He was the only brother of the late Ben T. August, former city clerk of Richmond, and a nephew of Thomas P. August, former judge of the hustings court. The funeral arrangements are pending the arrival of the body. The burial will be in the family plot in Hollywood cemetery.

Attack Anthracite Tax From Different Angle

HARRISBURG, Aug. 9.—New proceedings to test the constitutionality of the anthracite coal tax act of 1921, this time raising the question whether the commonwealth has any right to tax coal used by coal producers in operating boilers for mining operations, were taken in Dauphin county court, and it is probable that more will be launched. These tests are independent of the proceedings now in the United States Supreme court and will be listed for hearing in the courts here this fall as soon as bonds and necessary names are filed.

The first case attacked constitutionality on several grounds, particularly on classification of coal, and last week an appeal was taken in a company which questioned the method of assessing value for assessment of the tax. The latest case comes from the Scranton Coal Company, raising the question whether the Auditor General can tax coal used in production. The appellant will claim the tax should be assessed only on the net amount of coal prepared for market, deducting what is used in the process of mining. Practically all of the big coal companies have taken appeals, and they will be heard during the winter, a series of trials being needed because of separate questions raised.

Four More Fever Cases Are Reported

Four additional cases of typhoid fever were reported at the city health officer yesterday. Examination of the records show the total number to have been reported this year is 21, most of them recently. This does not mean that there are 21 persons ill at the present time. There has been one fatality from the disease and several others have recovered and are now considered convalescent.

Dr. Roy Flannagan, head of the state health department, was here yesterday. He came here to place his signature on the Tishen camp which is under the guidance of Hugh Flannagan, Dr. Flannagan and Dr. R. W. Garnett, city health officer, are both at the camp today.

While here yesterday Dr. Flannagan met over the local typhoid situation but did not appear to see any cause for alarm. He considered the recrudescence of the malady as nothing unusual after last year's outbreak.

Latter, White, Was Chatting With Ko Lo in Pell Street—He May Die—Motivative Unknown.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Ko Lo, fifty-six, of No. 17 Pell streets, International President of the Hip Sing Tong, was loitering in the doorway of 23 Pell street, chatting with two white women at 8 o'clock last night, when two shots were fired at close range. One and one of the women, Mrs. Rae Malsbender, twenty-one, of No. 203 West 84th street, wounded, sprawled on the pavement as several Chinese fled.

Mrs. Malsbender, shot in the left foot, was first carried by her companion, Mrs. Kitty Pavanetto, to the third floor of the Pell street house. A bullet in his right side, Ko lay groaning on the sidewalk. Immediately scores of Chinese were fleeing buildings in the narrow street and mingling with a party of sightseers who had just arrived.

The yells of the terrified Chinese brought police from neighboring posts. Fighting their way through the crowd, the police reached Lo and wanted him to a chop suey restaurant.

Meanwhile, in the third floor hallway of No. 23 Pell street, Mrs. Pavanetto, with a tourniquet she had made of her belt, was fighting to save Malsbender from bleeding to death.

Ko and she were taken to the Beekman Street Hospital. It is thought Ko will die. When police cleared the street they found the weapon—a large automatic—on the gutter. A third shot had failed when the cartridge jammed.

Police of the Oak Street Station then began search of every building occupied by Chinese in the neighborhood. Although no Chinese were questioned, one could be found who had seen the gunman or could suggest a motive for the shooting. That there had been an outbreak of the Tong feuds was scoffed at.

Mrs. Malsbender said she had come to the doorway to buy some tea and had been talking with Ko, whom they had known some time, only a few minutes when the shots were fired.

Neither of the women caught a glimpse of the person who fired.

Hudson Company Suspends Operations As Coal Supply Gives Out—Several Streets Yet to Be Smooth Paved.

All street work in Danville is held up today because of the lack of coal at the plant of the E. M. Hudson Company, which requires fuel constantly in heating asphalt and mixing the ingredients for local road work. The city engineer reported today that not a wheel was turning and that representatives of the company were out trying to get some coal in order to proceed with the work.

Under existing conditions it is doubtful if the entire street program can be finished this year and some of the streets listed for improvement during the present year may have to be carried over. The engineer estimated today that the amount of street improvement work done in Danville since Spring totaled $180,000 with seven additional streets now remaining to be worked on, these representing an outlay of $40,000. The railroad and coal strikes are responsible for the halt in operation here and it is doubtful if the speed with which the road contractor has been working until this time can be equaled between now and cold weather.

The following streets remain to be worked on, Colquhoun, where the top surface of asphalt remains to be placed, Paxton street, Patton Street from Craighead to Bridge, South Ridge from Main to Patton, Bradley Road, Washington street and the lower end of Virginia Avenue. It had been proposed to finish the Virginia Avenue improvement at once and surveys have been made of the property with a view to immediate work. Now that the material and fuel have ceased to arrive, this work has been suspended. The material which is needed by the Hudson Company includes asphalt, gravel, lime dust, which is used in making the filler as well as using it on the finished surface and coal to heat the asphalt vats.

TWO MEN HELD AT REQUEST OF CUBAN GOV'T

KEY WEST, Fla., Aug. 5.—Two men who gave their names as Fred Smith and J. R. Burns were arrested at Cape Rebecca late today by Deputy United States Marshal Lopez, acting at the request of the Cuban authorities, through the American legation in Havana.

The Havana police requested the detention of the men in connection with their investigation of the murder near that city recently of the captain and engineer of the Cuban motorboat Murgardos.

According to information from Rebecca light the men were picked up at sea from a drifting boat August 3 by a Spanish fishing smack commanded by Captain Miguel Esteves who landed them at the light where they remained until their arrest.

Cuban authorities since the murder and theft of the Murgardos have been searching for two men known in Havana as Duke Stevenson and John Rosenbaum. Captain Esteves whose return to Havana several days ago with his report of the rescue of Smith and Burns, resulted in the formal request for their detention, said the boat occupied by the men was painted in various colors in a haphazard fashion and that it bore no name. Certain characteristics in his description, however, led the Havana police to believe the launch was the Murgardos. Smith and Burns were brought here today and lodged in the county jail.

The cutting of teeth is a tax on the infant's little system, which is reflected directly upon the stomach, the seat of all ill, causing what is commonly termed "indigestion," or improper elimination of toxic poisons that have accumulated on account of the fermentation of food in the stomach. If you will use Anti-Perment with your baby at teething time, you won't realize that baby is cutting teeth until they peep through the gums. Anti-Perment prevents food fermentation, keeps the stomach, bowels and intestinal tract free of toxic poisons and irritations, and baby is perfectly normal all through this period. Your doctor will approve the use of Anti-Perment. It is perfectly harmless, pleasant in taste and yet very effective. Your druggist can supply you. Specify "Anti-Perment for children."—adv.

HEARTS OF OAK ARE ALSO KIND

LONDON, Aug. 5.—Lloyd George, though Prime Minister, is one of the most accessible of men, say his admirers, and he will listen to anybody who speaks to him civilly. So will Lord Riddell, and both of them are kind-hearted.

Lord Riddell proved both these statements to be true and there by found a way out of his troubles. He now occupies a cottage near the Walton Heath Golf Links where he has been given employment as a cadet.

Farrington is an ex-soldier who went through the Boer war and the Great War, too. Owing to his inability to find rooms anywhere, he and his wife and two children have been camping out recently on Reigate Heath.

A few days ago Lord George and Lord Riddell were playing a round of golf on Walton Heath. Farrington with a "how or never" feeling, asked the two players and was given a sympathetic hearing.

He told them how for months he had been unable to find a home. He had been ejected from one place after another that he had found unoccupied and "commandeered"—cottages, sheds, barns, etc.

Only when he and his family had suffered the rigors of the open air life by day and by night, and he was at his wit's end what to do, did he determine, he said, to lay his case in person before the king.

When finally Farrington mentioned his war service and spoke of his four wounds, and his experiences in the retreat from Mons, his case was won. His luck turned next day he received the key of a small cottage built by Lord Riddell.

STILL IGNITES RICHMOND HOUSE

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 5.—An alarm of fire sounded this afternoon from 132 Wood street, and when the fire brigade reached the house, apparently a fire was burning in the kitchen. The firemen subdued the flames and made an inspection. A perfect still, complete in every way, 25-gallon capacity, and in the midst of a fire, the firemen found the lower part of the house had been ignited.

A report to the Prohibition Department today showed that a colored preacher of Glanville, between Richmond and Lynchburg, was possessed of one gallon of corn liquor and 12 gallons of blackberry wine. ## Radio Is Anything but "Wireless;" Fans Find It Takes a Lot of Copper

Radio Girl, on Marconi ship, sitting in maze of copper wires

BY good fortune the old word "wireless" has now given way to "radio," a shorter and more accurate term. The amateur would have changed it anyway long before this because he is coming to a full realization of what an endless amount of wire is needed to operate a really efficient "wireless" set.

The amateur as well as the professional finds himself working with a maze of copper wires and brass posts, plugs, and bases. The head phones for instance have concealed in their covering a mile of enameled copper wire with a diameter about the size of a human hair.

It is in the antennae or aerials for radio telephony that copper is of the greatest use. Probably in no other service is copper subjected to a more critical test, in addition to providing unequalled conductivity where it is most needed, copper also permanently resists corrosion and furnishes the necessary tensile strength to resist the wind and its own weight.

Attempts to substitute aluminum have met with little success because it lacks strength. And so called "copper clad" wire, which is steel wire covered with copper, gives only about forty per cent as much conductivity as real copper wire.

Experiments by the U. S. Bureau of Standards have led to the conclusion that No. 14 or No. 16 bare copper wire is the best. For large antennae phosphor bronze made with seven strands of No. 20 or No. 22 wire is most satisfactory. This strand construction absorbs considerable stress and minimizes stretching.

The Eletttra, Marconi's radio ship, is a good example of the use of copper, brass and bronze where the best radio results are successfully sought. Quite aside from the lavish use of rustless material in the construction of the ship itself the Eletttra is equipped with a radio room that bristles with these radio metals.

SETTLEMENT OF COAL STRIKE IS NOW DOUBTFUL

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 5.—(By The Associated Press)—Expectations of a settlement of the soft coal strike on a national scale vanished tonight among the union officials and operators here for a joint conference on peace plans with the receipt of reports of the failure of Indiana and Illinois operators' associations to agree to join the conference. The hope, however, was held out that settlement effecting scattered mines in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania and possibly West Virginia may result from the conference, which reconvenes here tomorrow afternoon.

President John L. Lewis of the miners announced that the joint conference would reconvene to open negotiations. The question, however, of whether the miners would be willing to make a wage agreement with the operators now here was undecided, and indications were that a decision would be deferred until after the adjournment tomorrow with the operators, most of whom own mines in Ohio.

Hillman, who has been made president of Emory and Henry College and who will leave next week to enter on the discharge of his duties.

The announcement was also made that the Emory and Henry College will next session, open its doors as a co-educational institution, and already there are more than twenty-five young women who have applied for matriculation. There is at this time more male matriculates for the college than at any other period.

MORE GUN PLAY IN NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The East side, still quivering with excitement from gun play in Chinatown, last night, was stirred again today when an automobile carrying four men burst into a crowd of clothing strikers gathered in front of Beethoven hall on East Fifth street, opened fire and dashed away leaving eight men lying wounded on the street.

Southern Head Appeals To Men To Aid the Road

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern railway appealed to all employees of the railroad system today to assist the management in performing its duty to the public and to the company. The railroad executive declared the Southern railway had "more than fulfilled" its duty to striking shop employees in endeavoring to get them to resume work under terms of President Harding's strike settlement offer, which were rejected by the shop crafts committee today.

In rejecting the offer, the shopmen's representatives told the railway executives in conference here that the strike was national and must be settled nationally. The conference was called at the request of Vice President Miller of the Southern railway and the Mobile and Ohio were willing to agree to a strike settlement under President Harding's terms which left seniority unimpaired until the railroad labor board acted.

The following letter was addressed to all employees of the Southern Railway System by President Fairfax Harrison today:

"I have delayed communicating with you hoping that I could finally report that our shop crafts had returned to their normal position. Striving for this result no conditions have been created to prevent the return of our men with seniority rights unimpaired but the door has been open and now is open and unobstructed to them."

"On August the first, your shop crafts committee was invited to meet with our officials to discuss the return of our men upon terms proposed by the President on July thirty-first and subsequently accepted by the national representatives of our crafts. After delaying answer until August third the committee agreed to meet our officials on August fifth, on which day they asked postponement to August seventh and then asked further postponement today. Though recognizing the efforts of the company in the protection of the seniority of our men, I told this morning by our committee that they will make no adjustment with Southern Railway System as the strike is national and must be settled nationally. Our duty is to our employees, the public and the company. The duty to our striking employees we have more than fulfilled and I now call upon you whatever your occupation to assist the management in performing its duty to the public and the company. This obligation calls for unimpaired transportation service and this we will perform."

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 5.—Vice President Miller in charge of operation of the Southern Railway System today made the following statement:

"After delaying negotiations for a week the shop crafts committee of the Southern Railway System and Mobile and Ohio today advised the officers of the Southern Railway System and Mobile and Ohio Railroad companies that they will not make any adjustment of the strike with the Southern or the Mobile and Ohio as the strike is national and must be settled nationally. This they recognized that the Southern and the Mobile and Ohio Railroads have kept the door open in the matter of seniority and have agreed to the other terms which were proposed by the President on July 31st and were subsequently accepted by the National representatives. If the shop crafts so that there is now no obstacle to settlement created or maintained in the management of the Southern or the Mobile and Ohio."

PAYS 5c AFTER 15 YEARS.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 5.—Harry Crandall, who is a resident of Gates Ferry, became conscience stricken suddenly after having professed religion and has returned five cents to the Thames Ferry Company which he took years ago.

Crandall in his letter to Mayor Lucius E. Whiton said that fifteen years ago he evaded the payroll tax of his firm, the ferry boat plying between New London and Groton. With the confession was a nickel.

As the ferry at the time Crandall asserted he carried the company was operated by the Thames Ferry Company, the money was given to the F. H. & A. H. Chappel Company, who were lessees.

RUPTURE FEARED AMONG ALLIES

PARIS, August 5.—(Associated Press)—Prime Minister Lloyd George tonight expressed the opinion that a rupture in the entente was probable if not inevitable, according to some of the French newspaper correspondents attending the allied conference in London, one of whom is "Perthaux," political editor of the Echo de Paris.

The British premier added that this was regrettable, both from the English and French viewpoints, but that Premier Poincare's attitude left no option.

W. Z. FOSTER EJECTED FROM COLORADO

DENVER, Col., Aug. 5.—Forcible ejection from Colorado by State rangers yesterday of William Z. Foster, leader of the big steel strike this year ago and nationally known labor organizer, was "for the best interests of the State" and "no law was consulted," Adjt. Gen. Hamcock said today.

Foster, who was characterized as a "dangerous radical" by the Adjutant General, was taken from a hotel after his arrival from Salt Lake City, placed in an automobile and escorted to the Kansas State line. General Hamcock announced. It had been reported that he was placed on a train there.

Foster told the rangers his mission here was "legitimate," but he offered no physical resistance. A grip which he carried, said to contain radical literature, was seized and its contents confiscated.

Foster, who is alleged to be the President of the Society of Friends of Soviet Russia, was denounced by the Adjutant General, who said, "We have characterized him as an undesirable in Colorado, and we decided to have him kept right on going without any stop in Denver."

BURNINGS AND BLOODSHED ARE STILL RAMPANT

ROME, Aug. 5.—(By The Associated Press)—Burning and bloodshed continue in Italy. Draconic instructions have been issued to the military authorities by the ministry of the interior to put down civil war at all costs and to prohibit absolutely demonstrations of all kinds.

Martial law was extended tonight to the province of Brescia, where disorders are expected to break out. The government is gratified at the result obtained in the other provinces now under martial law.

Devastation of railroad men's clubs and socialist buildings took place in Bologna. In the sackings, Fascist invaders seized several red flags, carrying them as trophies of war through the principal streets. A ceremonial burning of the captured socialist standards took place in the public square. The Fascist say their action was provoked when a Fascist workman was alleged to be treacherously killed by some socialist railroad workers.

In the Fascist depredations, several socialist co-operative stores went up in flames ignited by Fascist torches. Firemen were prevented from working by squadrons of Fascist. Several bombs were heard to explode from inside the burning buildings.

Fascist staged a hostile demonstration before the Prefect's palace against Prefect Porci, whom they have accused of favoring the socialists and whose recall they have demanded. A Fascist deputy was wounded on a train as he was returning from Bologna to Ancona at the head of several Fascist bands.

Senator Taddel, the new minister of the interior, who has had a varied experience in handling disorders, has already created a great impression by his energetic stand in demanding the restoration of order.

Richmond Teacher And Fiance Drown Off Cape Charles

Miss Rosaline Seay and James D. King Swept Away in Treacherous Undertow.

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 8.—Miss Rosaline Maude Seay, teacher in Highland Park public school, was drowned in company with James D. King, her fiance, while bathing at Cobb's Island, off Cape Charles, Va., yesterday afternoon. Caught in an undertow, they were both swept to death while King and his father, Joseph D. King, an official of the Pennsylvania railroad, were trying heroically to rescue the young woman. The father was himself rescued with difficulty and the son was washed out to deep water. His body has not been recovered and probably will not be. He was a resident of Cape Charles and a law graduate of Washington and Lee university.

Arrangements for the funeral of Miss Seay will not be completed until this afternoon. The burial will be at Brimington, King and Queen county.

News of the tragic fate of Miss Seay was conveyed by telegraph last night to the family of Mrs. E. C. Seay, an aunt, with whom she made her home at 1205 Victor street, Highland Park. The few details given were substantiated today by press dispatches.

Miss Seay was in her 28th year, and taught in A-A grade of the Highland Park public school, with which she had been identified for years.

She was a native of Brimington, where she was reared and received her early education. She graduated from the Fredericksburg normal school.

She was a daughter of the late Henry and Rosaline Seay. She was the only member of the immediate family survives, a brother, Henry Seay, who now lives at Huttig, Ark.

A special telegram to The News Leader from Cape Charles reads as follows:

A beach party, consisting of about 25 persons, started from Cape Charles yesterday morning by automobile to the seashore, thence by motorboat for Cobb's Island, where the party spent the day on the beach and in the surf. About 4:30 in the afternoon, while only a few of the party were in bathing, Miss Maude Seay, of Richmond, who had been the house guest of Mrs. John W. Daniel for the past three weeks, together with her fiance, James D. King, a graduate in law of Washington and Lee university, found the undertow had taken them out beyond their depth. Miss Seay could not swim. Joseph D. King, Mr. King's father, and one of the Pennsylvania railroad officials located here, went to the rescue, leaving Miss Margaret Bishop, who herself was swept beyond her depth by the undertow and was only saved by the tide again bringing her in shallow water.

After half an hour's struggle, the father, who had been with his son, lost Miss Seay, who disappeared while both were making desperate efforts to save her. Almost exhausted, father and son started for shore, Joseph King, reaching a depth of about four feet when he gave up, losing consciousness, but he was near enough shore to be rescued. The son, James, went down in deeper water in a strong undertow. Assistance had meantime arrived from the life-saving station, located a quarter of a mile away. Other members of the beach party, who were at the life-saving station at the time, assisted in rescuing Joseph D. King and Miss Margaret Bishop, after half an hour's constant work.

Miss Seay's body was found after about 30 minutes later in only about four feet of water, having been washed ashore by the current around a point, the body still warm and limp. She was beyond revival, though the life guards worked incessantly as long as there was the faintest hope.

James King's body had not been recovered early today. Captain Dougherty, of the life-saving station, advised his father that he would not everything possible to recover the body. It is chance in a thousand that the body will ever be found. A searching party left Cape Charles this morning to render whatever assistance they could.

The beach party, escorting the body of Miss Seay, started out in the motorboat from Cobb's Island for the main land about 7:30 o'clock last night with the mother and father and the missing young man. While in the middle of the bay between the island and mainland, a terrific electrical storm overtook the boat, making it necessary to anchor about an hour. The lives of all on board were in imminent danger on account of the heavy electric storm and the strong wind. The boat finally reached the mainland about 10 o'clock, where an undertaker took charge of Miss Seay's body.

The grief-stricken party reached Cape Charles by automobile about 11 o'clock with the first news of the disastrous trip.

HYDRO AIRPLANE ARRIVED IN NEW YORK LAST NIGHT

NEW YORK, August 8.—The Sampaio Corrello, the hydro airplane, which is to attempt a flight from New York to Rio Janeiro arrived here at 6:30 o'clock tonight from Essington, Pa. The big seaplane, piloted by Lieutenant Walter Hinton, trans-Atlantic flyer, alighted in the Hudson river opposite 82nd street.

The flight from Essington was accomplished in 3 hours and five minutes. It was the first trial cruise of the Sampaio Corrello since she was obtained from the navy department, and those in the plane expressed themselves as highly satisfied with its performance.

From Essington to Cape May, N. J., a driving rain was encountered while the second part of the flight was made against strong head winds. "If the trial cruise means anything at all," said Dr. E. Pino Martins, who will accompany former Lieutenant Hinton on the South American flight and who was one of the trial passengers, "I can see nothing but success in our main venture."

While the seaplane is in New York a complete wireless outfit will be installed, new radiators will be put on the two liberty motors of 400 horsepower each, and the present propellers will be replaced with blades of oak.

FIGHTS SUNDAY LAW CASE

ANSONIA, Conn., Aug. 8.—The case against Mayor John C. Mead, charged with violating the Sunday law in managing the exhibition baseball game between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Ansonia team Sunday afternoon, was continued in the city court this morning for two weeks. A plea of not guilty was entered and the Mayor announced that he would fight the case.

The Mayor acted as chairman of the committee of the city which brought the St. Louis team to Ansonia. It was stated today that a protest against St. Louis playing in Ansonia had been filed with Baseball Commissioner Landis in behalf of the New Haven team of the Eastern League. The protest is said to have been based on the ground that Ansonia is within ten miles of New Haven and within the jurisdiction of the New Haven team. The St. Louis managers found that railroad timetables gave the distance between the two places as thirteen miles.

News of Rocky Mount

ROCKY MOUNT, Va., Aug. 9.—Monday, Trade Day, better known as "Court Day," was the largest attended in many months; the main thoroughfares of the town being blocked with cars parked. People came from all parts of the county, although a large crowd being here, it was an unusually quiet day, only the usual routine of business being transacted, with the exception of the Tobacco Growers' association, which was held in the courthouse auditorium, with a good attendance, presided over by the president of the county association, A. B. Preston, W. R. West of Henry county, president of this district, made an interesting address. The usual routine of business was transacted, and several new members were enrolled.

The Protective Mutual Association of Virginia is in session here today, Tuesday, Aug. 8, holding its regular monthly meeting, with Allen Flora, of Roanoke, R. F. D. No. 2, president, presiding. This association includes the counties of Franklin, Henry, Roanoke and Botetourt. This company has been in operation for 16 years, and this is considered the most successful year in the history of the association. The feature of this meeting is to elect officers for the year. The following officers were re-elected for the coming year: J. Allen Flora, of Roanoke, president; H. L. Peters, of Wertz, vice-president; J. W. Kemper, of Botetourt county, secretary and treasurer. Directors: R. W. Menefee, J. E. Peters, J. H. Kasey, G. C. Flora, T. A. Holland, J. H. Gilles, C. J. Bowen, E. A. W. J. McGhee, G. W. Landis and Charles Linkerhoker. Next meeting to be held in Roanoke city.

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist church of Rocky Mount, entertained at a most delightful miscellaneous shower Monday afternoon from four to five o'clock, in the home of Mrs. N. B. Hutcherson, on Maple avenue, in compliment to Miss Maude Hudson, whose marriage to Prof. W. T. Skinner, of Saltville, Ky., which will take place Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 9, 1922, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hudson, near town. Mrs. Zadok Bernard with Mrs. N. B. Hutcherson were hosts. A large number of beautiful presents were presented to the bride-to-be, which she accepted in her usual charming manner. Brick ice cream and cake were served.

"Some To Think About" will be presented at the auditorium theatre Saturday night. This is a special and will be featured by an all-star act. "Inside the Cup" will be presented August 17th, which is an all-star act and is a super-spectacle.

Chesler Allen Tucker will be hostess at a party this afternoon to a number of his little friends, to celebrate his fourth birthday, in the home of his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Tucker, at the Methodist parsonage.

Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, Miss Helen Kabler, of Bluefield, W. Va., and Miss Virginia Lumpkins, of Danville, were the honorees of a most enjoyable bridge party given them by Miss Claiborne Dillard, in the home of her grandparents, Judge and Mrs. P. H. Dillard. Two tables were charged and several rubbers were made. The invited guests were: Miss Kabler and Miss Lumpkins, Miss Winifred Sklar, Miss Cecelia Dillard, Miss R. Adams and Miss Frances Lee Simpson.

Miss Alice White, of Danville, entertained a number of her friends at an enjoyable informal dance last evening, Aug. 7, in the home of her uncle, W. M. White, on Main street. The Rocky Mount Symphony Orchestra played the latest dance music.

Miss Annie Saunders, with her niece, Miss Ann Dillard, returned to Taylor's Store Sunday, and were the guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Price, for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Greer with daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Donahue, the recent guests of Miss Annie Saunders at the "Farm," have returned to Maryland.

Miss Clyde Rodgers has Miss Louise Poff for her attractive house guest in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hodges, on Diamond avenue.

Mr. H. H. Peak and daughter, Miss E. H. Peak, and Mrs. W. L. Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Davis have returned from Virginia Mineral Springs.

Misses Mattie and Laura McNeeney, who were last week of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Lemon in Roanoke, have returned.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dudley have their aunt, Miss Annie E. Bradley, of Roanoke, for house guest.

Miss Kitty Greer has returned to Newell, after spending her vacation with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. N. T. Greer.

C. C. Stone with his mother, Mrs. J. W. Stone, were in town the latter part of the past week shopping.

Miss Alice Peters arrived last evening in Roanoke, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Morris.

E. Thompson, of Roanoke, are the guests of their sister, Mrs. Harry T. Webb, on College Hill.

Miss Daisy Diver, who was recently operated on in a Roanoke hospital for appendicitis, is sufficiently recovered to return to her home.

Hope Miles has accepted a position with the C. and O. railroad company in Richmond, where he has already assumed his new duties.

Mrs. Zadok Bernard with her daughters, Mrs. Irene Brugh and Mrs. J. L. Davis, are attending the annual meeting of the W. A. O. of the Baptist church which is convening at Storey Creek church, near Providence, Franklin county.

Union Of Churches Is Deemed Near

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—(By The Associated Press.)—Church union and the possibility of all Christendom recognizing one creed appear to be a step nearer than they have for many centuries, according to a report of the commission on the World Conference on Faith and Order which will be submitted to the general convention of the Episcopal Church in Portland, Ore., next month.

The report announces there will be a meeting in Washington, D. C., in May, 1925, of delegates from nearly a hundred denominations, from a score of countries, to discuss the possibilities of Christian union. This will be a reorganization of the body which met in Geneva in 1920. Of this gathering, the report says, "deep differences were manifested but all were convinced that great progress can be made." At the Washington conference all the denominations present at Geneva are expected, including Anglican, Baptist, Congregational, Czech American, Disciples Eastern Orthodox, Friends, Lutheran, Methodist, Presbyterian, and reformed churches. Before the conference meets the committee suggest that fundamental questions shall be discussed, the report suggests, are:

"1.—What degree of unity in Faith will be necessary in a reunited Church?

"2.—Is a statement of this one Faith in the form of a Creed necessary or desirable?

"3.—If so, what Creed should be used? or what other formula would be desirable?

"4.—What are the proper uses of a Creed and of a Confession of Faith?

"Until Christians are agreed as to what the Church is and the place and function of a Creed," the report continues, "it seems futile to take up these."

It has been well said that there is no Church which has not something of value to give to its sister Churches or to receive from them. If we believe that, let us test its truth.

"At Geneva it was proposed that special commissions should be created for the study of dogmatic, historical and liturgical questions, and those concerning ministerial orders and authorities, as affecting the differences between Christian communions; and that negotiations should be opened between related communions for closer fellowship as a step toward the goal of complete union."

"The Eastern Orthodox Churches are now very hopeful as to the World Conference."

"An encyclical letter of the Holy Orthodox Eastern church of Constantinople was issued in 1920, urging the creation of closer relations of friendship among the Churches, and to that end, (a) the acceptance of a uniform calendar; (b) the exchange of brotherly letters; (c) a more friendly intercourse between the representatives of the various churches; (d) an intercourse between theological schools, and the exchange of theological and ecclesiastical periodicals; (e) the exchange of students between the seminaries of different churches; (f) the convening of pan-Christian conferences to examine questions of a common interest; (g) impartial and historical examination of doctrinal differences; (h) mutual respect for the customs and usages prevailing in each Church; (i) mutual permission for the use of places of prayer and of cemeteries; (j) the settlement of the question of mixed marriages; and (k) the mutual support of the Churches in the work of charity and the like. A favorable reply was made to this communication."

IRON AND STEEL PLANTS HIT

SHARON, Pa., August 8.—Further curtailment of iron and steel production in the Shenandoah and Mahoning valleys is expected this week, due to lack of coal and coke. Only fifteen out of forty-seven blast furnaces are in operation and indications are that only a few more will be kept out this week. In the Shenandoah valley only five of the eighteen furnaces are in blast. The active furnaces are those of the Carnegie Steel Company, one at Farrell and four at Newcastles.

Ten furnaces are still operating in the Youngstown district. The American Sheet and Tin Plate Company this week is operating eighty of its ninety-eight hot mills at its tin plate mills in Farrell and Newcastle. The sheet mill at Farrell is working 190 of its 200 mills. It is stated that as long as the Carnegie Company is able to keep the tin mills supplied with Bessemer tin bar they will be able to operate for an indefinite period.

Coal and steel shortages probably will result in curtailment of operations at the Farrell works of the American Steel and Wire Company within a week.

Nuns Miraculously Escape Tidal Wave

Three Ursuline Sisters At Swatow Drift on Debris As Waters Rise.

HONGKONG, Aug. 8.—Three Catholic sisters in charge of the Ursuline Convent at Swatow, 250 miles north of here, had miraculous escapes from the tidal wave and typhoon which swept the port last Wednesday, causing casualties estimated at 10,000.

Bishop A. Rayssac, in charge of the mission, reported today that the Catholic church and mission building successfully weathered the typhoon, but the compound wall collapsed before the onrushing waters. The terrific wind carried away the roof of the Ursuline Convent and the three sisters in charge, one British and two French-Canadians, were caught by the flood as they were making for safety in the cellar.

One of the sisters clung to the church-yard gate, while a second was carried to comparative safety on the floating roof of a nearby building upon which she had scrambled.

The mother superior, Sister Marie Rosary, floated on a drifting bed until daybreak and had been given up as drowned when she was found by two Chinese Christians and brought back to the mission compound.

All the church vestments, the personal belongings of the inhabitants of the convent and the equipment of the school were carried away, destroyed by the wind and water.

No word has been heard from the Catholic missions at Chauchowfu and Kityang, and it is feared they have been wrecked.

Chinese Christians living in one seacoast village reported to Bishop Rayssac that 200 persons in the community had been drowned.

Desolation hovers the ruined city and horror haunts its streets. In the native quarters hundreds of corpses and the carcasses of animals are mingled with the debris. It is estimated that more than 15 per cent of the city's buildings were destroyed, including the silk-knitting factories and the old German Consulate.

The American Consulate and the Standard Oil Company's warehouse were slightly damaged.

Together Until Death

BRIDGETON, N. J., Aug. 8.—Grieving because admission to the Old Soldiers' Home in Vineland made necessary their separation, Elizabeth S. Wilson, 80, widow of two Civil war veterans, today was married to William Smith, 86, a third veteran. Following the death of Mrs. Wilson's husband, she was married to Smith, a chum of the late Gaspier Wilson.

Advancing age and financial stress made necessary the application for admission to the home by the one as a soldier's widow, and the other as a veteran. However, each was sent to a different building, and the two old folks found the separation unbearable.

Telling his troubles to another old veteran, Smith was formed that if they should get married they would be permitted to live together at the same institution. The idea was seized upon and they returned to Bridgeton for the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. L. D. Stult of the First M. P. church. They returned to Vineland happy, to end their days together in the home.

Dollar Day At Herman's Was a Big Success

Not only because it brought to us a large volume of business but more so because the hundreds who came to our Dollar Day Sale were thoroughly satisfied with the unusual offerings that had been prepared for this semi-annual occasion.

It is indeed pleasing to know that the shopping public of Danville and surrounding country appreciates the reliability of our business methods and our advertising and we wish everyone to know that as in the past 36 years of business here our guiding lights shall ever be

Honest Merchandising
Correct Representation Good Values, and Courteous Attention

On account of the rain which began yesterday at 8:50 we were obliged to open our door ten minutes earlier than the time advertised but this was imperative on account of the scores of customers who were waiting on the sidewalk. We regret this necessary departure from our advertisement.

Taking this occasion to thank all of our customers for their valued patronage we desire to announce that our buyers are completing a four weeks' visit to New York and will soon return with the finest stock of Fall merchandise that we have ever shown.

IRON AND STEEL PLANTS HIT

SHARON, Pa., August 8.—Further curtailment of iron and steel production in the Shenandoah and Mahoning valleys is expected this week, due to lack of coal and coke. Only fifteen out of forty-seven blast furnaces are in operation and indications are that only a few more will be kept out this week. In the Shenandoah valley only five of the eighteen furnaces are in blast. The active furnaces are those of the Carnegie Steel Company, one at Farrell and four at Newcastles.

Ten furnaces are still operating in the Youngstown district. The American Sheet and Tin Plate Company this week is operating eighty of its ninety-eight hot mills at its tin plate mills in Farrell and Newcastle. The sheet mill at Farrell is working 190 of its 200 mills. It is stated that as long as the Carnegie Company is able to keep the tin mills supplied with Bessemer tin bar they will be able to operate for an indefinite period.

Coal and steel shortages probably will result in curtailment of operations at the Farrell works of the American Steel and Wire Company within a week.

Dollar Day At Herman's Was a Big Success

Not only because it brought to us a large volume of business but more so because the hundreds who came to our Dollar Day Sale were thoroughly satisfied with the unusual offerings that had been prepared for this semi-annual occasion.

It is indeed pleasing to know that the shopping public of Danville and surrounding country appreciates the reliability of our business methods and our advertising and we wish everyone to know that as in the past 36 years of business here our guiding lights shall ever be

WATER, RIOT GUNS, POLICE ROUT MOBS AT OCEAN VIEW

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 8.—What appeared at one time the beginning of a serious riot at Ocean View last night was quickly quelled by the fire department, when it played a stream of water on a mob of about a thousand sailors and civilians, dispersing them in all directions.

Trouble started when two women engaged in a fight on the Ocean View Hotel porch over the possession of a chair. A man took part with one of the women until the police arrested him and one of the women. While the officer was escorting his prisoners to the station, the officer was accosted by a sailor, who also was placed under arrest. This aroused the indignation of the sailors at the resort, who quickly gathered in considerable numbers.

The crowd assembled in front of Justice Wright's office and threatened violence on the officers after repeated unsuccessful attempts to break up the mob, the fire department was called upon, which succeeded in bringing about temporary quiet.

The civilian and woman who were arrested were bailed, but the sailor was placed in jail. Several hundred sailors learning of the navy man's confinement stormed up to the jail and tried to break the lock to the cell in which the sailor was confined. This crowd was also dispersed when the Norfolk police patrol wagon with 12 officers with riot guns arrived on the scene. The mob had been dispatched to Ocean View by Captain Boggs in answer to a riot call from Justice Wright. The appearance of the officers again brought about order for a while.

The next disorder was reported at the fire station, which the mob was storming with rocks. It did not take the officers long to break that up, however.

Practically all the sailors at Ocean View were ordered to return to the base on the next cars. Following this order peace was restored, but the Norfolk officers remained until order was assured.

Later the arrested sailor was turned over to the naval authorities.

IN CHAIR FOR 39 YEARS, CRIPPLE, CURED HERE, WILL WALK AGAIN

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Frederick W. Birge, of Middlebury, Vt., will take his first step in 39 years Aug. 15 at the hospital for Ruptured and Crippled the doctors there believed.

The date will be the anniversary of his loss of the use of both legs, through infantile paralysis. Also it will mark a triumph of surgery. This is the earliest case of infantile paralysis on record in Vermont and is said to be the longest period of paralysis terminating in recovery in the annals of surgery.

Birge was 14 when stricken. His legs contracted into the position of one sitting. Efforts to cure him were without result and the case was given up as hopeless. His life itself was limited to the range of a wheel chair. He did not collapse into helplessness, however. Though his lower limbs were useless, his arms, by constant propelling of the chair, could grasp developed almost the strength of a gorilla.

With his sister, he owns a 60-acre farm in Vermont, producing poultry, dairy products, fruits and berries. Birge learned to pull himself up, hand over hand, into the seat of a wagon, and thus managed his farm and sold his produce. It supports them both.

Eight years ago there was an infantile paralysis epidemic in Vermont and when it subsided the State Board of Health established an after-care department, in charge of Miss Bertha E. Beisbrod of Boston. One of the nurses visiting a boy who lived near the Birges heard of the neighboring farmer. She went to see him. A year ago he was examined by Dr. Robert Lovett of Boston. It was decided there was a possibility of his being cured if he could have the services of great specialists.

On Dec. 19 last Birge was removed to the Hospital for Ruptured and Crippled, Dr. Armitage Whitman of No. 283 Lexington avenue, visiting surgeon, operated on both ankles and hips, straightening and stretching the legs. Aug. 15 the plaster cast which extends from his feet to his shoulder blades is to be removed and temporary braces adjusted and he will walk the doctors say.

Yesterday he grasped the metal framework above his head like a monkey and swung his body in its stiff mummy-like cast out and stood of his feet, leaning against the bed for support and smiling.

COW CAUSES DERAILMENT AND THREATENING FIRE

SCOTLAND, Ga., Aug. 8.—When a cow got in the path of a Southern freight train here early this morning, causing derailment of the train, a fire started that for a time threatened the town. Five gasoline tank cars were in the derailed portion of the train. Flames spread toward the town, but only one residence and several cars of freight were burned. No one injured, but traffic was delayed.

Liquor Pirates Busy Off Florida

MIAMI, Florida, Aug. 8.—(By The Associated Press.)—Where Bobby hies himself to the hayloft or crawls under the house and in wide-eyed wonder peruses a paper-backed chronicle of Morgan, Captain Kidd, and other gentry who roamed the seas under the south-eastern coast of Florida, and in the Bahamas, if recorded in a book, might cause Bobby to regard Morgan, Kidd and Company with less awe.

The boy may not know it, but the sea rovers are on the job again and the escapades of liquor pirates off the south-eastern coast of Florida and in the Bahamas, if recorded in a book, might cause Bobby to regard Morgan, Kidd and Company with less awe.

He overhauls a liquor runner, holds it up, steals all, or much of its cargo, as his vessel will carry, waves his hand to the luckless owner and disappears to hand his loot at some unrequited cove on the Florida coast.

Others have landed on small keys in the Bahamas where cargoes of liquor for rum runners have been assembled and raided the warehouses.

Official reports of piracy have not been frequent. The liquor smugglers who have been held up at sea charge the occurrence to profit and loss and make no complaint because they are law breakers themselves. The pirates naturally do not tell about their operations, but numerous stories of hold-ups and robberies lead out through underground sources and there is ample indication that prohibition officers are not the only people the liquor runners are constantly on the lookout for.

At 11:15 a. m. 18 held in jail at West Palm Beach as one of the men charged with the robbery of the Bank of Florida at Stuart, Fla. Several months ago also was a piracy charge hanging over him. Just what part he took in the case is not known, but the federal authorities have announced that if Moore was granted his liberty on bail or was acquitted of the robbery charge, he would be arrested immediately on a federal warrant.

The alleged piracy of the schooner "The Albany" was one of the most recent. The schooner was captured by the British Customs at Stuart, Fla. at a short distance from here and the theft of between $20,000 and $25,000 from the vessel. The schooner, captured July 20, The Albany, according to British officials, has been engaged in the rum-carrying trade between the Bahamas and Jamaica. Dody Carey, cashier aboard the Albany, was sent to Miami by the British Commissioner at Bermuda to report on the capture of the schooner.

The Albany was at anchor at Cat Key, Carey said, when an auxiliary schooner said to the Falcon appeared. Three men were aboard the Falcon and after anchoring they boarded the Albany, no informed Captain Edgecomb, who was in charge of the cargo of liquor. They were entertained by Edgecomb during the forenoon while the schooner was being searched for liquor. The cargo was transferred to the Falcon according to the account.

Spanish Dying As Useful Tongue

SAN JUAN, P. R., Aug. 8.—Students from ten or more of the United States have enrolled for the special Spanish course at the University Summer School at Rio Piedras and Miss Josephine Holt, in charge of the school, is more than pleased with the fact that students have been attracted from such a wide territory.

Spanish cannot longer be considered a commercial or bread-and-butter language, but is being studied purely for its cultural qualities, said Miss Holt. "One of the outstanding features of the course is that the students are interested in the broader study of the language and its cultural value, and not in acquiring it for purely commercial purposes."

Some of the best equipped Spanish students and scholars among the public men of Porto Rico are to give special lectures during the course in addition to the intensive routine study.

When the Spanish course is finished Miss Holt will return to her work as supervisor of foreign language instruction in the public schools of Richmond, Va.

Jaunty Suit in Heavy Silk for Early Fall

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN
THE heavy silks that one sees in the shops are always a temptation and prove irresistible when one pictures them made up in a modish costume like this one.

The loose short coat is simple enough to be youthful. The surprise effect of the blouse, which is of a lighter-colored silk, is smart and quite becoming.

The side plaits of the skirt help to emphasize the length of the skirt and at the same time give fullness, a commendable feature in a suit which is certain to get much wear because of its adaptability for many occasions.

If heavy crepe silk with a satin side is used, the satin side may serve as binding.

The jaunty velvet hat with a low side trim of ostrich is a characteristic fall model.

Results In Ohio Harding Victory

CHICAGO, August 8.—(Associated Press.)—With Carmi A. Thompson leading by a wide margin, for the Republican gubernatorial nomination in Ohio, political observers hailed his apparent success as a victory for President Harding's policies and for strict enforcement of the prohibition laws.

The tide of political unrest seen in recent elections in Indiana, Pennsylvania, Iowa and North Dakota seemed to have been checked in the president's home commonwealth, Thompson scoring in the early return of more than two to one, vote over his nearest competitor, C. Homer Durand, the beer and light wine candidate, while Congressman C. L. Knight, the strongest of the two Progressive candidates, was third.

In the Ohio Democratic senatorial contest Senator Atlee Pomeroy was leading by better than 2 to 1 over his opponent, John J. Lentz, while Congressman S. D. Fess was holding substantial lead over three opponents in the Republican senatorial race. Charles Dick running second. Both Lentz and Dick had the backing of organized labor in their campaigns. In other statewide primaries the returns were so slow in coming in that the victors seemed in doubt up into a late hour. First returns from Arkansas showed Governor T. C. McRae, who sought endorsement of his administration and strict law enforcement including Sunday blue laws, leading E. P. Toney, who had attacked the governor's position, particularly in connection with pardon and parole policies. The Democratic gubernatorial nomination, about 3 to 1. The Ku Klux Klan issue also was brought prominently to the front during the closing days of the campaign.

In Alabama, where Henry Ford's Mussel Shoals offer figured in the campaign, W. W. Brandon, issued an early statement forecasting his nomination for governor "by a tremendous majority."

Organization Candidate Leading in G. O. P. Race For Governor of Ohio

COLUMBUS, O., August 8.—(Associated Press.)—The nomination of Carmi A. Thompson, of Cleveland, the Harding administration and anti-Saloon League candidate as the Republican nominee for governor was indicated on the face of unofficial returns tonight from 938 precincts out of approximately 9,000 in the state and representing 69 of the 88 counties. On these returns, Thompson was maintaining a lead of more than 2 to 1 over his nearest competitor, and was leading in all but a few of the counties heard from.

Thompson's nearest opponent in the nine cornered race was C. Homer Durand, of Coshocton, the beer and light wine candidate. Congressman Charles L. Knight, of Akron, who campaigned as a Roosevelt Progressive, was running third and Secretary of State Harvey C. Smith, was fourth on these returns.

The vote from the 938 precincts was: Thompson 15,928; Durand 7,545; Knight 6,451; Smith 5,451; Arthur H. Day, soldier candidate, 1,950; Harry Clay Smith, Cleveland negro publisher, 2,050; R. R. Beetham, of Jada, speaker of the Ohio House, 609; Daniel W. Williams, Jackson publisher, and a Progressive, 957; J. W. Durnell, Columbus, wine and beer candidate, 530.

The Republican gubernatorial race developed the two main issues of the campaign—wet and dry and Progressivism within the party. Colonel Thompson who is a former treasurer of the United States, issued a statement from his home in Cleveland saying: "All indications are that I will be nominated by a large plurality. I appreciate the splendid endorsement given me I am not unmindful of the responsibility my success will entail but with help of all Republicans, we will win in November."

In the senatorial contests Senator Albee Pomerene, Democrat, was maintaining a large lead over former Congressman John J. Lantz of Columbus who had the strong endorsement of organized labor and Congressman Simon D. Fess, former chairman of the Republican national congressional committee had an even larger lead over his 3 opponents in the Republican race for the senatorial nomination.

Senator Pomerene had the open opposition of the anti-Saloon League, while Fess had its endorsement. Fess, larger county, was opposed by organized labor.

Returns from 814 precincts gave Pomerene 11,412 and Lantz 6,921. The vote from 827 precincts in the Republican senatorial contest stood: Fess 10,021; former Senator Charles Dick, of Akron, 6,568; former Lieutenant Governor John H. Arnold of Columbus, 4,789 and David W. Wood, a civil war veteran of Sandusky, for the Republican senatorial nomination.

Though rain falling generally over most of the state early today caused a light vote during most of the forenoon in the urban centers in Ohio's statewide primary election, clearing skies brought forth a steady stream to the polls during the afternoon resulting in a fairly heavy vote being cast when the polls closed at 5:30 p.m. general standstill time. In the rural sections, the vote was said to have been augmented because of the showers, farmers, unable to work in the harvest fields using the spare time to go to the voting houses.

Three clear-cut issues, progressivism, prohibition and labor dominated the campaign which has been one of the most intense in the state's history. The campaign was featured by the large number of candidates, 69 competing in that on both tickets for state offices. There were twelve candidates seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination and three the Democratic. Minor state offices brought forth from three to a dozen candidates for each office on each ticket. A full delegation of congressmen, state assemblymen and county officers also held places on the tickets. Because of the length of the ballot final results were expected to be considerably delayed.

The progressive issue was brought forward by Republican gubernatorial candidates, Congressman L. C. Knight, of Akron and Daniel W. Williams, Jackson publisher, both followers of Colonel Roosevelt in 1912. The conservative administration forces centered on Carmi A. Thompson, of Cleveland, a former United States treasurer and closely affiliated with the Harding administration.

In Thompson's candidacy, also, was the prohibition issue but to test Thompson received the endorsement of the Anti-Saloon League, which, though it approved the record of three other Republican candidates, eliminated them as serious contenders in the race. Countering the champion of the dry forces was C. Homer Durand, Coshocton attorney and former wet leader in 294 precincts was Fess. Durand made his campaign on a clear-cut fight wine and beer platform.

The candidacy of Secretary of State Harvey C. Smith of Zanesville, also was to be tested. Smith, with the prohibition issue and the question of endorsement of the national administration. Smith has been considered a liberal, drawing the opposition of the Anti-Saloon League and also had the national administration forces, nevertheless, political leaders considered him a formidable candidate.

On the labor question the issue was most distinctly defined in the candidacies of United States Senator Albee Pomerene for renomination on the Democratic ticket, and Congressman Simon D. Fess, former chairman of the Republican national congressional committee for the same nomination on the Republican ticket. Labor organizations have fought both candidates, urging support for former Congressman John J. Lantz of Columbus, on the Democratic ticket and former Senator Charles Dick of Akron, or former Lieutenant Governor John H. Arnold, of Columbus, in preference to Fess.

Fess received the approval of the dry organization. Neither Pomerene or Lantz were approved by it. No distinct issues were developed in the Democratic gubernatorial contest where former State Auditor A. V. Donahay of New Philadelphia, former State Supreme Justice James G. Johnson of Springfield and Thomas J. Duffy, chairman of the state industrial commission, were the contenders. This race was expected to be a close one.

Thirteen of the 20 Republican congressmen seeking renomination were unopposed, and in eleven districts Democratic candidates had no opposition. Of the thirteen Republican congressmen renominated without opposition, one, Saloon League classed three, Longworth, Stevens and Gahn of the first class and twenty-first districts, respectively as wet. The rest were classed by the same organization as dry.

Of the eleven Democratic congressional candidates who were nominated without opposition, two were classed by the anti-Saloon League as dry, six as wet and three not classed as wet or dry. Those listed as wet are: S. G. Striker, first; John R. Quane, second; Warren G. Clark; William A. Gableman, sixth; Isaac R. Shinn, ninth; John McSweney, sixteenth. In districts where congressmen have opposition, in only two instances are their opponents listed as being wet by the dry organization. These are in the tenth and twentieth districts, made vacant by incumbents, Fess and Knight, seeking higher offices, all Republican candidates are listed as dry. Only four of the Democratic congressmen who went down in the Harding landslide two years ago are seeking to come back. They are Isaac R. Sherwood, Toledo, ninth district; Martin L. Davis, Akron, 15th; William A. Ashbrook, Newark, 17th; and Charles Mooney, Cleveland, 20th. Sherwood, alone, was unopposed.

Congressman Theodore E. Burton, Cleveland, 22nd district, was opposed for renomination by former Congressman Henry L. Emerson, whom Burton defeated for renomination two years ago.

bus who had the endorsement of organized labor.

Congressman S. D. Fess, former chairman of the national Republican Congressional Committee had a substantial lead in the early tabulations over his three opponents, former Senator Charles Dick, of Akron, former Lieutenant Governor John H. Arnold of Columbus and David W. Wood, a civil war veteran of Sandusky, for the Republican senatorial nomination.

MISS MCCOMICK SHOPS
PARIS, Aug. 8.—Miss Mathilde McComick spent most of her time today in Paris shops, making a large number of purchases preparatory to going to Switzerland Wednesday or Thursday.

Although she and her father, Harold F. McComick, President of the International Harvester Company maintained silence concerning future plans and refused to discuss a report that Mathilde was buying a trousseau for her marriage to Max Oser, her Swiss fiance, a friend of the family said that Mathilde naturally was keen to take advantage of many of the beautiful things obtainable in Paris shops in anticipation of "seeing her love in Switzerland."

This friend added that Mr. McComick was continuing to proceed on the theory that his daughter was the best judge of what constituted her happiness, and would be permitted to do so as she wished. It was further said that Mr. McComick had made no plans for going to Switzerland in the immediate future, but that Mathilde probably would leave about the middle of this week, accompanied by a companion who is expected to go directly to Lucerne to visit her aunt.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 8.—(By The Associated Press.)—Telegraphers numbering approximately 1,100 on the Big Four railroad are taking a strike vote following the breakdown in negotiations over the interpretation of working rules, it was announced tonight by the company in a statement to The Associated Press.

The company in its announcement stated that "when no agreement could be reached with the employees they offered to refer the matter to the railroad labor board for adjustment, as provided in the transportation act of 1921, but the union refused to take this action and strike ballots are now being taken."

Two men had words over Senator Brown's attack on the state department of agriculture.

LASCELLES FAILS IN BUSINESS DEAL

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The first business venture of Lord Lascelles, better known as the husband of Princess Mary, has proved a failure. The Conqueror Typewriter Manufacturing Company in Stourton, near Leeds, of which he was the head and principal shareholder has just been sold.

The concern was started in 1919 with a nominal capital of half a million sterling. It was intended by the promoters to produce an all British typewriter which should compete with the best American machines.

The erection of the factory and its equipment was undertaken at a time when prices ruled high. No expense was spared and when the works were completed they were considered the "last word" in modern mass productions.

It was hoped that the new industry would provide regular employment for 400 work people. Much experimental work was undertaken in order to justify the name of "Conqueror" and ensure production on a sufficiently profitable basis. But owing to the industrial slump not a single machine has been produced for sale.

BUFFALO JITNEYS BANNED

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 8.—Operation of jitneys in opposition to the trolley car service of the International Railway Company was declared illegal by Justice Pooley in Supreme Court today, and a ruling was handed down that a writ of mandamus may be issued against Frank X. Swab calling on him to enforce the law.

Automobiles and auto buses have been handling the city's street traffic since the International Carmen struck on July 2. Two weeks ago the company resumed operation with about 50 per cent of its cars, manned by imported workmen, but with virtually no public patronage.

Street railway officials had fear of violence kept the traveling public off the cars. Officers of the men's union declared it was sympathy for their cause and some police officials were of the opinion that the public preferred automobiles to street car riding.

Driving the jitneys from the streets international officials believe, will force a quick restoration of normal street car traffic.

Common Sense About Eczema and Eruptions!

Here's Something About S. S. S. That You'll Be Glad to Hear.

You might just as well know it right now—the cause of all your skin troubles is in the blood. There is no getting away from it. Science has proved it. We prove it. You can prove it. When the cause of skin troubles and eruptions is in the blood, it isn't cured.

Let S. S. S. Give You An Anger. What does sense to simply treat the skin? A bottle of S. S. S. will prove to you what is happening in your blood. S. S. S. is a scientific blood cleanser—it drives out the impurities which cause eczema, tetter, rash, pimples, boils, blackheads, blotches and other skin eruptions. When these impurities are driven out, you can't stop several very nice things from happening. Your lips turn naturally rosy. Your eyes sparkle, rosy cheeks, bony necks, thin limbs, help regain lost flesh. It costs little to have this happen to you. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

PETER HENLEY CAPTURES RACE

NORTH RANDALL CLEVELAND, O., August 8.—(Associated Press)—Dr. T. L. Cooper, of Dayton, Ohio, won both divisions of the 2:08 class race today when he captured the $3,000 feature of today's Grand Circuit racing program at North Randall. It was the only event of the day to be decided in straight heats.

Peter Henley was driven by Harry Stokes and was coupled with Charley Sweet, which won the Edwards pace, for 2:08 class at the July meeting. Today Charley Sweet finished second.

In the second heat, Henley out in the third heat, Hal Bee won in a driving finish from Charley Sweet and Wrack.

The 2:04 pace resulted in a split heat event each of which furnished close finishes except the fourth. That was won by John Henry handily from Tramp Safe.

Only four of the six scheduled events were decided today. The track was left in bad condition by yesterday's rain and it was late before it was worked into condition to permit racing.

It was then decided to put the 2:11 trot and the 3 year old trot over until tomorrow. The track dried fast, however, and by the time the Leader stake was raced it was very fast.

Dictator, which started in the 2:20 trot, was barred from the betting, the judges being unable to establish the gelding's identity to their satisfaction.

Virginia Faces Stiff Football Schedule In Fall

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Aug. 8.—With the prospect of almost every position on the eleven filled by seasoned letter men and with a reorganized system of coaching and of athletic management the University of Virginia faces a fall football season that is full of promise in spite of the schedule which is the stiffest that any Orange and Blue team has had for many years.

In the line Captain Hall, Ward, and Hays are "V" men who are expected to be on hand to look after the guard positions while Clark whose toe has been an asset to the team for two years and Blackford are counted on for tackles. Davis will be back to take charge of one end and while neither Michie, former Captain, or Stevenson have definitely decided to return one of them may be back on Lambeth field in September.

Center is the only position in which the return of a last year's player is unlikely for Hankins received an academic degree in June and is not expected to return for graduate work although he has played only three years on the varsity.

Behind the line there are prospects of letters to Henry, Foster, and probably Carrington will be back in quarter. Oppelman and Buge are counted on as halfbacks and in full the return of Maphis is expected. But the real potential strength of the 1922 team is in the men from last season's scrub and first year teams who will be available for the varsity this fall. Two of the most promising of these are guards, Otton, two years ago all-Southern star for Florida, and Adams, the 200 pounder formerly with the Yale freshmen.

Thesmar, captain of the 1921 first year team, and Walker will try for the places of Adams and Hankins last year in the tackle. Bullard, from the first year eleven and Cutchen, Weaver, and Raney, from the scrubs, form a likely quartette. Campbell, Brown, and Dietrich, ex-scrubs, and Meak and Fleming, second year men, look best among the prospective ends.

In the backfield Arnold, ex-star of Lynchburg College, who was most prominent last season among the first year knights of the gridiron, is expected to make a place in quarter or one of the halves. Wilson, from the 1920 Pittsburgh freshmen, gives promise of supplying re-enforcement for Maphis in fullback. Taylor, Lewis, Little, and Eiders are now in their second year who are rated as good backfield material and from the scrubs Hubbard may fall here to place with the regulars.

T. J. Campbell who will direct Virginia's drills on Lambeth field this fall spent several weeks at the University during the spring term putting his men through their paces in order to become acquainted with their abilities. Coach Campbell, with Earl C. Alekik in charge of the line as assistant coach, will be on hand for practice early in September.

Washington and Lee, North Carolina, Georgia, Virginia Military Institute, George Washington and Richmond University will all be seen on Lambeth field this fall according to the schedule arranged by Ellis Brown, Virginia's first graduate manager of athletics. Games about a week from home will be played with Princeton, Johns Hopkins, and West Virginia.

September 30 the season will open when George Washington comes to Charlottesville for a game. A week later Virginia will go north to play Princeton. October 14 Richmond U. will be played on Lambeth field and October 21 the annual game with V. M. I. will be played here. The trip to Baltimore to meet Johns Hopkins comes October 28.

Four stiff fights in a row come at the climax of the season beginning November 4 when Washington and Lee is played on Lambeth field for the first time in almost a decade. A week later Georgia comes to the University for a game and November 18 the Orange and Blue will go to Moravian College at North Carolina. The season to meet North Carolina game which closes the season on Thanksgiving will be played in Charlottesville this year.

SOUTHERN TO BOOST SOUTH AT CHEMICAL EXPOSITION
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 8.—Better than ever before will be the exhibit of the Southern Railway System at the 8th National Exposition of Chemical Industries to be held in the Grand Central Palace, 46th Street and Lexington Avenue New York City, the week of September 11th.

This year's exhibit will be more comprehensive than any that has previously been made. It embraces a very complete display of the mineral and chemical resources of the entire territory served by the system and presents the advantage which this territory offers for a wide range of industries.

The exhibit will be in charge of Manager C. Williams of the Southern Railway System, assisted by Mr. Z. P. Smith, General Industrial Agent, and H. H. Willhite, Assistant Industrial Agent.

The bigger the auto a family has the later they are at a party.

M'RAE LEADING HIS OPPONENT

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., August 8.—(Associated Press.)—Governor T. C. McRae, candidate for re-election in today's Democratic statewide primary, was leading E. P. Toney, of Lake Village, by a ratio of about 3 to 1 in scattered unofficial returns from 224 precincts received up to midnight.

The vote in those precincts was: McRae 3,853; Toney 3,543. In Pulaski county the ticket supported by the Ku Klux Klan was maintaining a lead with about one fourth of the vote reported.

In the gubernatorial race neither candidate took the stand on the Klan issue. Governor McRae, however, was understood to have been endorsed by Klan supporters.

Representative W. A. Oldfield, Democratic "wip" in the House was leading his opponent, W. A. Hodges, of Bald Knob, for the congressional nomination in the second district by more than 2 to 1 on returns from 20 precincts.

"ORDER PUBLICATION"

Issued by order of the Clerk of the Corporation Court of Danville, entered on the 25th day of July, 1922.

In the Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of Danville, on the 25th day of July, 1922.

MINNIE CAMPBELL . . . . . Plaintiff against Eugene Campbell . . . . . Defendant

The object of this suit is to obtain from the said Court a decree divorcing the plaintiff, Minnie Campbell, a vinculo matrimonii from the said defendant, Eugene Campbell, upon the grounds of desertion, adultery and bigamy.

And an affidavit having been made and duly filed that diligence has been used by or on behalf of the plaintiff to ascertain in what County or Corporation the said defendant is, without effect.

It is therefore ordered that he do appear here within ten days after due publication of this order once a week, for four successive weeks in The Bee, a newspaper published in the City of Danville, Virginia, and do what is necessary to protect his interests in this suit.

Traitor's Trial Reveals Intrigue

MUNICH, August 8.—Evidence introduced at the recent trial of Baron von Leoprechting, who was sentenced to penal servitude for life on charges of high treason, indicated that the accused had received regular monthly pay from the French minister in Munich, M. Dard, and that France was interested in his alleged efforts to bring about the separation of the south of Germany from the north.

The Baron was charged with trying to effect the separation of Germany through French military occupation of the line formed by the river Main. The sections to be cut off included Bavaria, Wuerttemberg, and Baden. The plan involved also a part of Austria and the Tyrol.

A document introduced at the trial as having been prepared by the Baron was branded by the court as "a faithfully reflected image of the annihilating methods already used against Germany by Cardinal Richelieu, Cardinal Mazarin, Louis XIV, Cardinal Fleury, and Napoleon I."

The document is a monument to the burning hatred against German unity and against all that is German, the court declared in pronouncing sentence. It planned the political, economic, cultural, and moral disorganization of Germany, and the destruction of the unity of the German people.

The court asserted von Leoprechting's plan aimed at making Germany entirely dependent on France, politically and economically, and that it constituted documentary proof of France's scheme for forcible establishment of French hegemony in Europe.

The court said it was convinced that M. Dard came to Munich with a mandate from the French government that, following certain preparations by him, the French generals in the Rhineland territory, with their troops, would suddenly occupy the line of the Main for the purpose of effecting the separation.

Baron von Leoprechting pleaded that he acted purely out of patriotic motives, intending no subjugation of Germany, and meant to accomplish only a temporary separation. In pronouncing sentence the court announced it would have imposed the death penalty had the law permitted.

LUMBERTON TOBACCO IS AVERAGING $19.31

LUMBERTON, Aug. 8.—The Lumberton tobacco sold at auction during the first four days of the 1922 selling season 169,450 pounds of leaf tobacco for $32,894.01, an average of $19.31.

The average for the first four days of the 1921 selling season on this market was $5.59, the 1922 average being almost four times as much as that of last year.

A typographic error gave the average daily sales as 5,000 pounds instead of 50,000 for the first three sales days in an article published in the Sunday edition of the local newspaper.

The two houses to be operated by the co-operative tobacco marketing association here opened today for receiving tobacco, quite a number of members brought in tobacco and received advances on it. Tobacco growers were apparently pleased with the new marketing system.

POINCARÉ'S COERCION DEPRESSES GERMANS

BERLIN, August 8.—The announcement of M. Poincaré's penalties caused grave depression in all circles, especially in those of high finance and industry, which fear the effect on the German rate of exchange will be very serious.

The managers of four of the largest banks in Berlin called at the Chancellor's office this morning and remained in conference with Dr. Wirth for nearly one hour. The object of the conference was kept secret, but it was stated afterward that Germany's attitude could not be changed by the consequences of the penalties, not because the government lacks good-will, but like Luther on his trial for heresy, "I cannot move from my viewpoint. God help us! Amen."

Despite the tragic lamentations of the newspapers of all shades, there is an undertone of relief in the leading articles, which speaks for the fact that the worst was expected, and, indeed, some of the papers warn the German people that the worst is yet to come. M. Poincaré's present measures being only pinpricks.

The whole press is unanimous on two points: First, that M. Poincaré's decree actually proves that political and not economic factors are the main springs of his policy, and, second, that by sentencing and punishing the debtor even before the day of payment arrives, and doing so on his own responsibility without the consent of the Allies, Mr. Poincaré has practically foredoomed the London conference, which now, it is argued, can only develop into a farce after the manner of so many other conferences.

Meanwhile most of the newspapers print telegrams from Strasbourg and Paris, according to which there is no sign yet of the threatened expulsion from Alsace of thousands of Germans, a fact upon which they comment with some satisfaction.

On the other hand, news from the occupied districts about alarming movements of troops and changes in the French command cause apprehension.

The so-called Aufbaudeutsche, or Germans who until the war lived in foreign countries, who are the first to suffer from M. Poincaré's new penalties, find little sympathy with the German masses because most of them are Monarchists, and, indeed, not inconsiderable sums paid to them by the German government in advance for property in foreign countries lost during the war found their way into the treasuries of the reactionary parties.

For this reason the howls of the reactionary press about criminal violation by M. Poincaré of the German sense of justice must not be wondered at, while, on the other hand, the walls of the Socialist organs sound rather hypocritical.

The League of Germans in Foreign Countries met last night to protest against the new penalties, which, it was declared, "ignore the fundamental principles of right of property and cause gravest apprehension even in England and America, where an immense movement has been started for the protection of private property."

The friends of Graham Cobb will regret to learn that his condition is unimproved.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Evans of Danville, Va., are spending some time at the Battery Park Hotel Asheville, N. C., as are Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dudley of Danville.

GLIDER STAYS IN AIR FOR 57 SECONDS IN FIRST TRIAL
CLERMONT FERRAND, France, August 8.—(Associated Press.)—Fly for 57 seconds in a glider. Pilot Houseout raised the hopes of the spectators at Camp Mouchard today when, for the moment, they thought a flight in a motorless airplane was a reality.

Houseout said that he landed intentionally as his flight was only a qualifying flight, requiring that he remain in the air but 10 seconds. His machine was a biplane with fixed wings and flexible tips and weighed 300 pounds. Another French biplane, piloted by Louis Paulhan, who has made historic flights both in Europe and America smashed against the side of Mount Combrass in the trials today. Paulhan was unhurt.

Edmund Allen, the American pilot, is awaiting better weather conditions before taking the air.

The record time for remaining beneath water by a swimmer is four minutes, 23 seconds.

AS SHE WEDS ANOTHER

SHELIA TERRY SEDLEY

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

If a man changes his mind, his fiancee is entitled to financial compensation. That's an old precedent. Courts have recognized it in hundreds of breach of promise cases.

But if the girl changes her mind?

The man's entitled to sympathy only—and not much of that.

But now along comes a San Francisco miss who says a girl should bear half the courtship cost—and does it.

What do YOU think? Write the Bee Courtship Editor and tell him YOUR opinion.

(By GENE COHN)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—Girls, here's one of the most dangerous precedents in all the annals of wooing.
It has been set by Shelia Terry, dancer. Here's her ruling:
"If you have been courted by a young man, if you have accepted his presents and his entertainments; if you decide later that you like another young man better and decide to jilt him—his up to you to share the courtship cost."

Already her decision has been applied to herself and has caused no end of discussion among young women in San Francisco.

Today Shelia Terry is Mrs. Roy Sedley. She was not once married to another man in July. But she cramped her heart and her mind, as many young women have done.

Then she received this bill:
"Statement—For one unsuccessful courtship $150. (Itemized statement can be had on application.) Please remit by return mail."

After consideration she decided that it was no more than fair to pay it.

"If a man buys you flowers, candy, perfume and pays for taxicabs and theatre tickets and all the rest because he's in love with you and on the assumption you intend to marry him—most certainly a girl should expect to stand her share of the courtship bill," she holds.

Says Bootleg Girl
Checked Up Cargo
Seized On Ripple

Wife of Fugitive Cassese
Hears Chauffeur's Testimony, But Has Pity for
Mrs. Stevens—Prisoner
Calm.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Mrs. Edith Stevens, 19, whom the government charges with conspiring in bootlegging operations between here and the Ba-hama Islands, appeared in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon and unemotionally heard evidence that tended to show her familiarity with the alleged rum running activities of Antonio Cassese,
a wealthy tobacco dealer and fugitive.
Bartolin, from justice and his chauffeur, Joseph
The girl, whose thin lips and white face at no time showed any emotion, displayed far more interest in drumming her fingers on a table than in the testimony of the witnesses.
A few feet behind her sat Mrs. Cassese, wife of the fugitive, whose eyes seldom left the back of the girl's thin hair. The girl is under $20,000 bail and since her indictment, June 2, has been in the Raymond street jail.

The first witness before Judge Cat-field was Bartolin, the chauffeur. With the manner of a foreigner who understands little English, Bartolin told of the trip to the Bahamas aboard the steam trawler Ripple of the arrival at Nassau, where he met Cassese and Mrs. Stevens, and of the loading aboard the boat of many burlap bags containing "something." A burlap package containing six bottles of "something" lay upon the prosecutor's desk in front of him.
From Bartolin, Assistant United States Attorney R. J. James, at Mrs. Stevens' had accompanied Casese about this city while he attended to the purchase of the boat and the outfitting and coaling of it. He testified that on the arrival of the boat at Nassau it was a few miles from shore by Cassese and Mrs. Stevens, who boarded the vessel for a launch. He discreetly spoke of automobile trips in the island city, and the places of interest visited. He lived at a "restaurant" while Cassese and Mrs.

Stevens lived in a "hotel," he said.
At that point one who watched Mrs.
Cassese saw that her head tipped backward and her eyes closed for a moment.

Days Give Checked Cargo

Bartolin told of Mrs. Stevens sitting on the deck of the Ripple, paper and pencil in hand, checking the packages of "something" as they came aboard one night.
Capt. Erickson of the Ripple, was next on the stand. He did not seem to know he was Captain of the boat. He told of the start for the Bahamas May 13, and the landing there on "the 19th, 20th, or 21st." He showed nautical knowledge by minutely describing the steam trawler.

Mrs. Stevens' lawyer, Wallace E. J.
Collins, did not get a chance to cross examine the sailor very much, before the judge adjourned for the day. He managed, however, considerably to confuse the chauffeur and cause the prosecutor many times to jump to his feet for objections.
Mrs. Cassese told a reporter that she in no way blamed the Mrs.
Stevens, and bore her no malice.
"I'm sorry for the little girl," she said. "I don't believe she knew just what she was doing. I am a mother of children and can readily see how the poor girl might have fallen for my husband."

It has been said that Cassese is the head of a bootlegging syndicate that has smuggled into the country during the last two years more than 5,000, 000 worth of contraband liquor. Most of the whiskey is thought to have been sold in Manhattan, Brooklyn, Long Island and the Bronx.
August 24, 1921, Cassese and another woman, Mrs. Mary White, of No.
545 West 111th street, known as the Queen of the Bootleggers, were arrested in Brooklyn and later indicted.
They were riding in an automobile behind a truck loaded with cases of whisky, and when arrested had in their pockets documents, receipts, orders and checks indicating bootlegging transactions. Cassese also had $62,000 cash in his possession.

Our Shop Is Always Flooded
With pleasing, Cleaning, Pressing and Repair Work because our service is unequalled. Most good dressers come here to have their clothes pressed the Hoffman way. In fact, people are insisting that we do it this way. We obey orders.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR
IMPROVEMENTS IN THE
WIRING SYSTEM

The Wiring System has been completely redesigned, making it practically proof against short circuits and fire. Moreover, the new design has approved by the Fire Insurance Underwriters, and all Ford Cars equipped with the new Wiring System obtain the remarkably low fire insurance rate of .35c per one hundred dollars valuation.

Insurance on Ford Cars equipped with any wiring except the approved Ford design is double this amount. Let us explain these improvements in detail.

On all orders placed today we can make delivery in three to four weeks.
